

VLV Electrical Ltd is a new electrical contracting company in Chepstow, UK, offering a wide range of services, including smart home installations, energy-efficient systems, and renewable energy solutions.

1

Smart Homes

VLV Electrical is soon to be working in partnership with Loxone smart home systems, enabling automation, energy management, and security for your home. Other types of smart home integration are available.

Energy Efficiency

The company focuses on helping customers reduce energy costs through smart home integration with heating and smart switching, to in the future solar panel installations and battery storage systems.

2

3

EV Charging - coming soon!

VLV Electrical will soon be offering EV charging installations, helping customers transition to electric vehicles with ease.

VLV Electrical: Future

VLV Electrical Ltd is poised to be a leading provider of modern electrical services, with a strong focus on smart home solutions, energy efficiency, and renewable energy, delivering a future-proof experience for clients in the area.