Where great location meets excellent service

The hotel is perfectly placed for visiting Portsmouth's top attractions.

The Royal Maritime Club is one of the closest hotels to Portsmouth Historic Dockyard, just a five-minute walk away. You'll find plenty of other historic attractions nearby, as well as the city's popular waterside shopping and leisure destination, Gunwharf Quays, within 10 minutes by foot.

Continue the maritime theme when you return for the evening with dinner in our Horatio's Restaurant and drinks in our Victory Bar.

When you stay with us you'll also have access to our full suite of facilities, including swimming pool, jacuzzi, compass café, library and more.

Corporate events with a difference

The Royal Maritime Club is perfectly placed to host a range of corporate events, including meetings, conferences and exhibitions.

Full event support

Our highly-experienced events team can provide full support, no matter how big or small your corporate event.

Special occasions

The Royal Maritime Club is the perfect place to get together and celebrate your special occasion while letting someone else take care of the rest.

Whether you're organising a birthday party, reunion or a wedding, our dedicated events and hospitality team is here to help you every step of the way. We have a range of event spaces available, including our Below Decks function room, Trafalgar Ballroom, Nelson Lounge. There's even a skittles alley and games room you can hire.

When it comes to weddings, The Royal Maritime Club is the perfect backdrop for your big day. The hotel is a licensed wedding venue, meaning you can enjoy your ceremony and reception all in one place and your guests can stay in one of our 100 bedrooms, which are available to book.
